Dear Mrs. N,
I will enjoy being in your class next year. I hope "paddock" and "little red toad" syndrome have wash off before then.
studiously yours
Kent Dixon

Mrs. Neumann
It was a great English class. Thanks. Take care.
Dena Naqvi

Mrs. Neumann
I could lie to you and say I lived for your English classes the two yrs. I was in them, but that wouldn't be honest. Lisa Reid
P.S. You made them better!

S. Neuman

Mrs. Neuman
Thank you for the interesting classes of the last 2 years. I have a memory of a wild class. I'll be back for help next year
Richard

Mrs. Newman,
Thanks for making
English 30 such a blast!
I really enjoyed it (with the help of Karen, of course!).
Thanks for lunch, and try not to use your whip too much!
Love, Pam Sewers.

Mrs. Newman,
I'd print but after
2 years of trying to figure out my handwriting
the least I can do
is remain constant.
Thanks for everything!
(including, believe it or not, adding truth to the definition of late) Enjoy the gifts and take care!
Paul

Mrs Newman
Thank-you for making your class
so interesting, in both English 20 and
30. Thank-you for just everything
and the lunch.
Good luck and enjoy Hawaii in January. (Tell me
when and I'll order
you good weather)

Hey Mrs. Reumee, baby:
May your grey days be fewer than unspeakable activities with sheep (thanks for the pic) I'm sorry I didn't get a chance to write you an essay in my real copper-plate handwriting! Thanks for a valuable introduction to myth & Jungian psychology.
Merci Beaucoup,

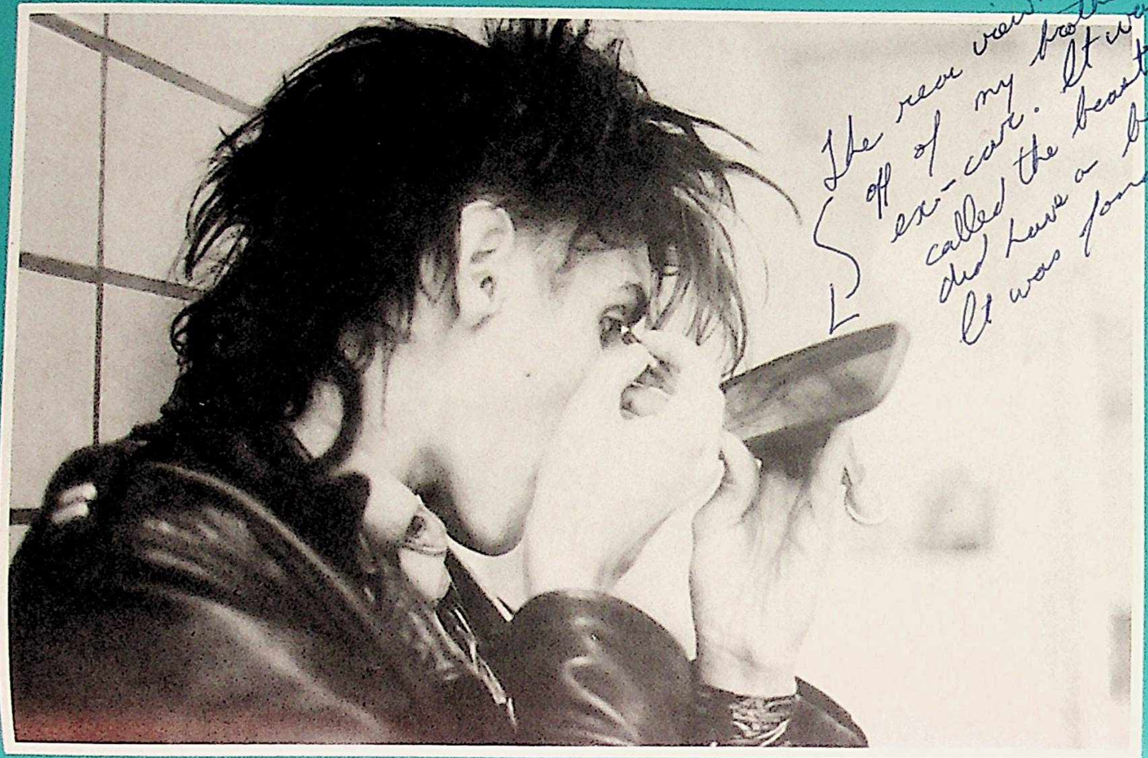
And the Grey Days ...



The rear view mirror off of my brother's ex-car. It was called the beast and certainly did have a bestial personality. It was fond of setting off the horn at 3 AM waking the neighbours called the police, and Martin fix it in his underwear. We had it crunched!

THE PURPOSE OF EDUCATION

There are those who believe that schooling ought to be wholly or largely devoted to preparation for making a living. Beware of such advocates. There is much knowledge, even in high school education, that does not contribute to making a living but to better living. This is the door through which you may enter a kingdom of beauty, literature, art, culture and learning. Learning never ends. A major purpose of education at Ross Sheppard is to help you develop skills and attitudes that will serve you well in a lifetime of learning.

"What is it like to be a grade ten student?" I find this question closely related to the question, "What is it like to be insulted for nine entire months of your life?" During the first week of school, you live with terror and paranoia for fear of the grade twelves lurking, waiting, anticipating your every move with cans of shaving cream concealed beneath their jackets. You can't hide. You can easily be identified by the location of your locker. Now that you've been found, you are assumed to have a minimum brain capacity and the mental awareness of a Twinkie. However, things get better, and eventually the snide remarks are cut down to a minimum. But remember: You've got a label to wear for the rest of the year — GRADE TEN STUDENT.

— Gigi Austria

Thanks to Mrs. Neuman and her grade 10 students for the submissions.

Like a Freshman... Froshed For The Very First Time

... you get kicked around like a cheap old soccer ball... K.L.

Grade ten is different, terribly different ... J.K.

... striving to comprehend words like logarithms that aren't even wooden, radicals that definitely are radical, a pi that has no taste whatsoever ... A.S.C.

... you don't usually have a girlfriend because all the grade ten girls like grade eleven or twelve boys. ... J.T.

... culture shock. J.K.

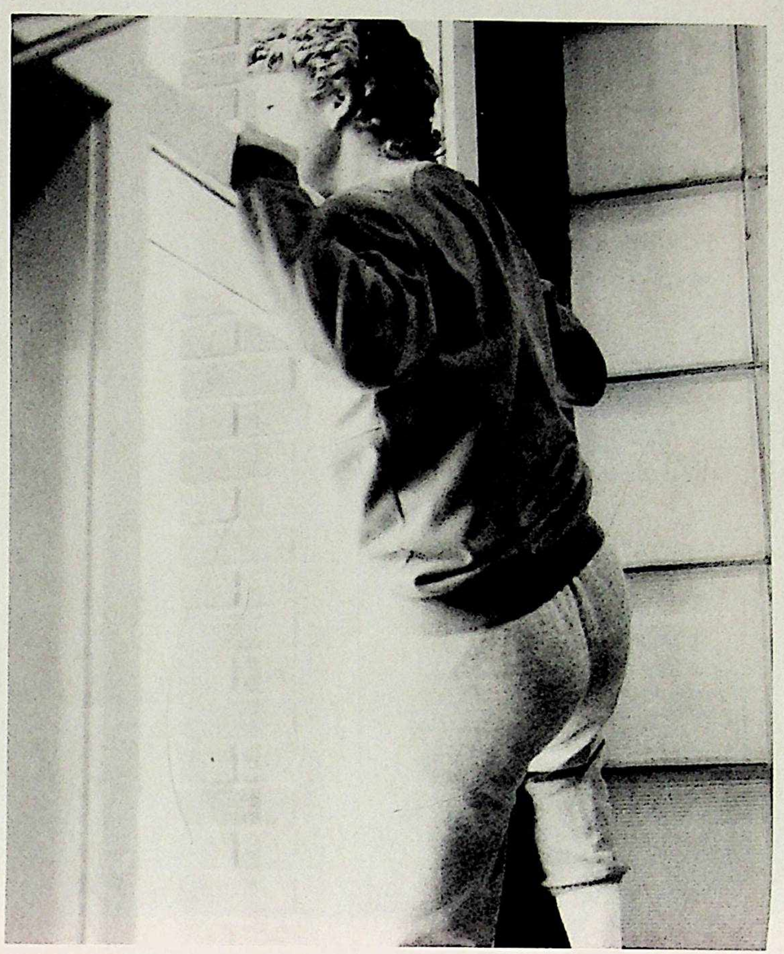
... you are sweating bricks because if you screw up, you think the world will fall in on you.

... the scariest feeling anyone in grade 10 can get is to walk through a corridor full of Gr. 11's and 12's. T.K.

... But being the youngest in the school, after being the eldest, seems like a step down the ladder instead of up. D.J.

The thing you have to watch for is the old grade 10 student, now a grade 11 student. P. H

... mass confusion... C.H.



..(the grade ten student) is now a young man and deserves a little respect. He treats others with respect too because he is treated this way. The grade ten student has a much better social life than he had in grade nine and more active than that of someone in grade eleven. The parties are on all the time and grade ten students are invited to parties of grade eleven's and twelve's but not vice versa. These are what make the life of a grade ten student exciting and difficult.
... attitude of a grade ten student toward the world is entirely different.
D. B.

..."little grade teners"... R.V.

...Finding your way around the school seems an impossible task ... S.H.

...fun... K.S.

...it is a year of fun...
G.

... I bet the majority of grade 10's can't wait to be in grade 12... C.M.

... new but enjoyable world.
... outstanding
B.Y.

... one of my life's great moment...
... I always wanted to be treated as a full grown man...
C.C.

... It's like settling in, in a new house.
R.Y.

... I feel like an ant surrounded by a sea of anteaters.
P.A.

...You can tell a Gr. 10 by the typical person wearing ten layers of clothing to make sure that no one else knows of the stains under their armpits... M.G.

... I guess you could say Gr. 10 is not all that bad, but grade eleven is going to be worse, I know it.
C.B.

Being in grade ten, at Ross Shep at least, is the best longterm event that has ever happened to me.

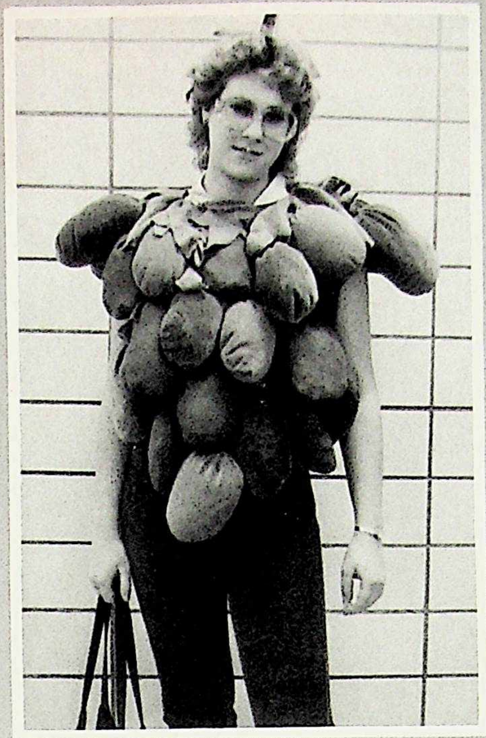
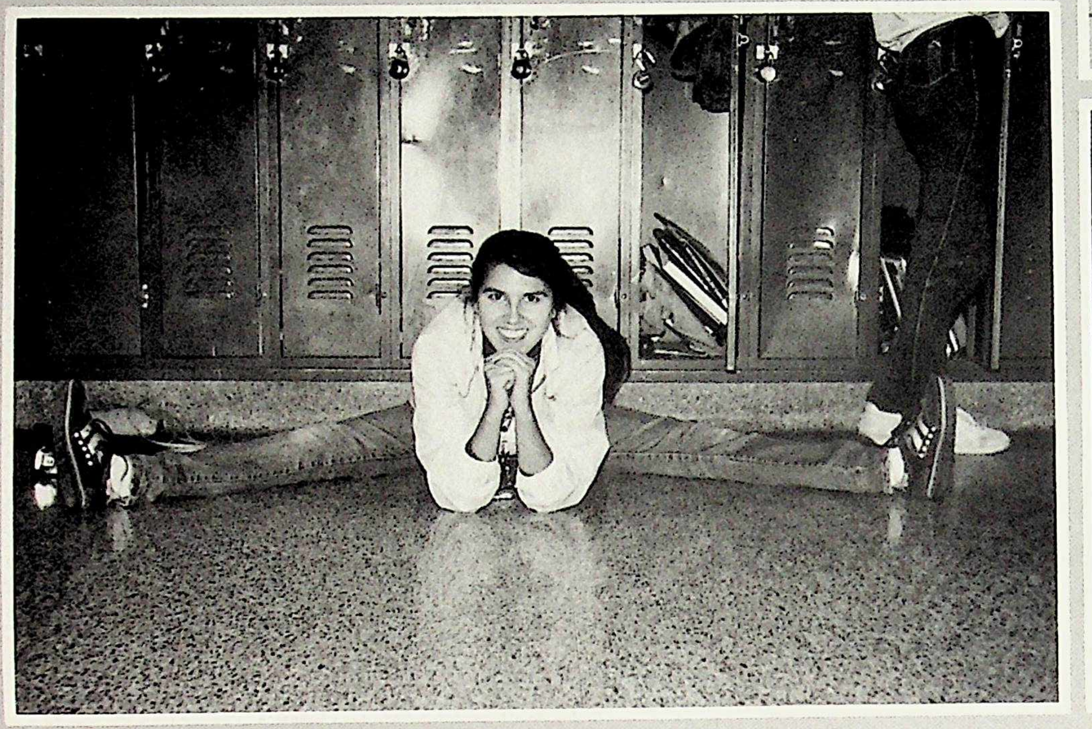
He's dead, Jim. . .



Genetic error in Dolly Parton's sister??

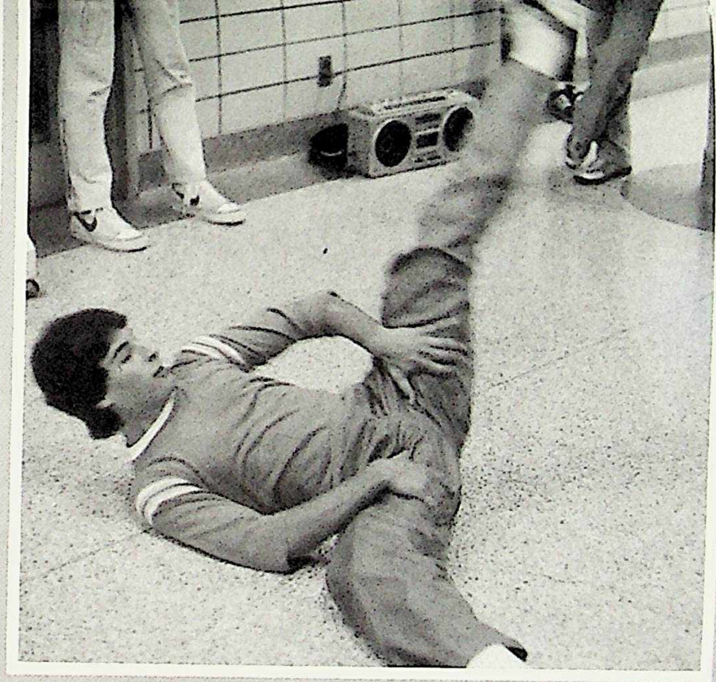


Her legs are broken and she's on crutches.

It's THIS long and THIS wide . . .

May I speak to Mr. Nixon?

Who's the cook?

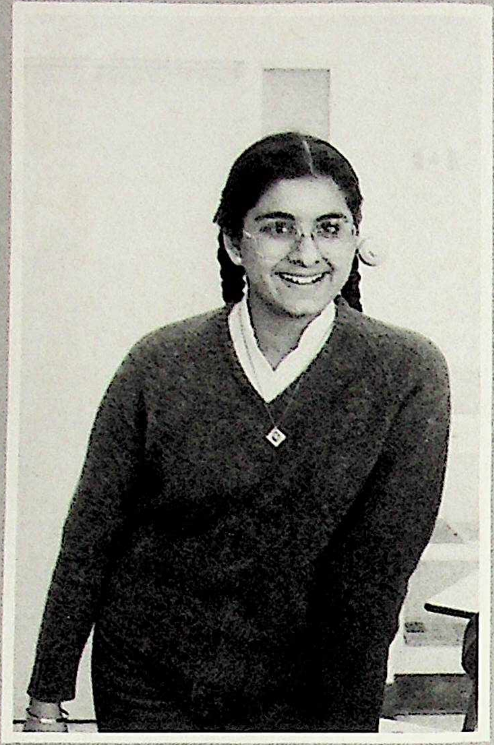


What's itching powder?

Ross Shep's floor warmers.

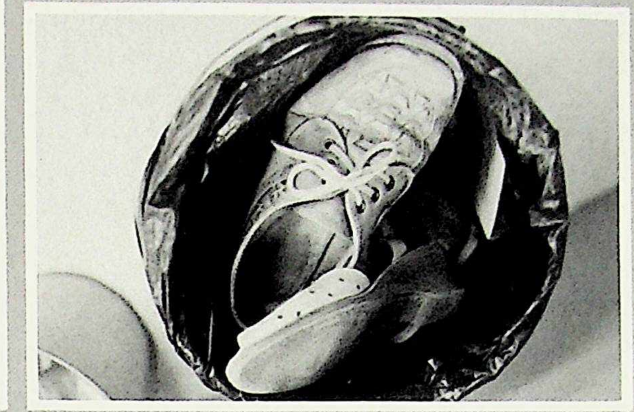
Where are the dwarfs?

Thermostat earrings.

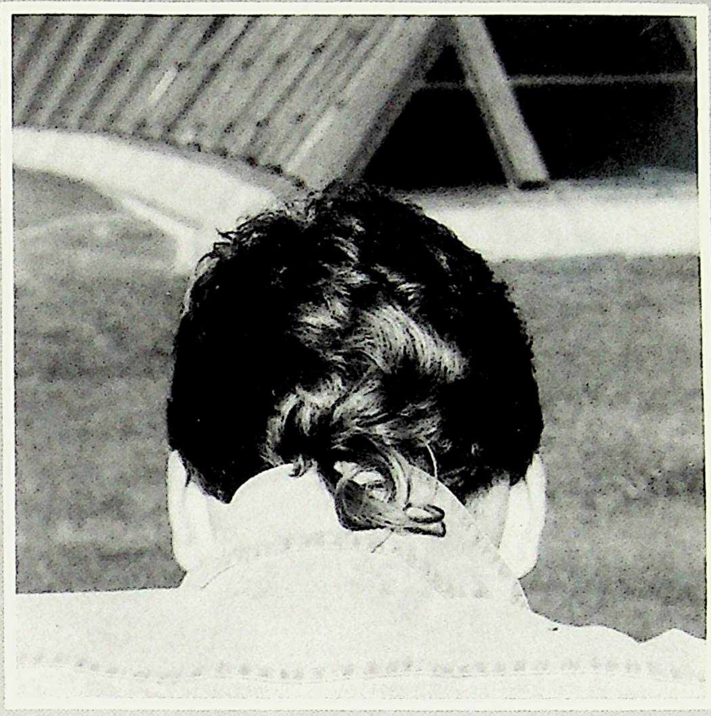


Great dentures—but for how long?

These shoes are all done walkin' . . .

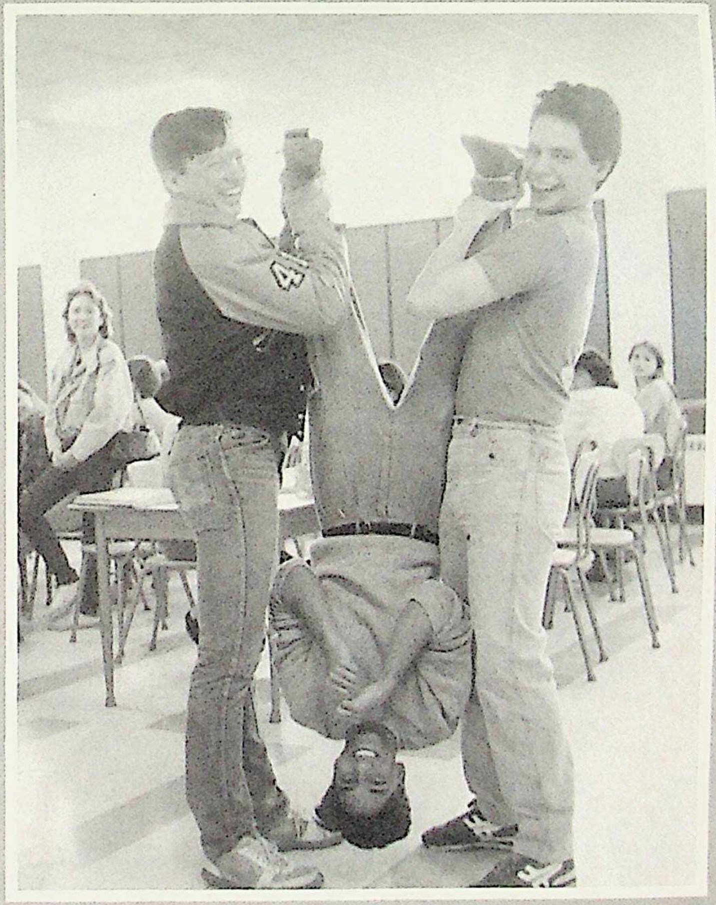


Sex? Sure! I've heard about it.

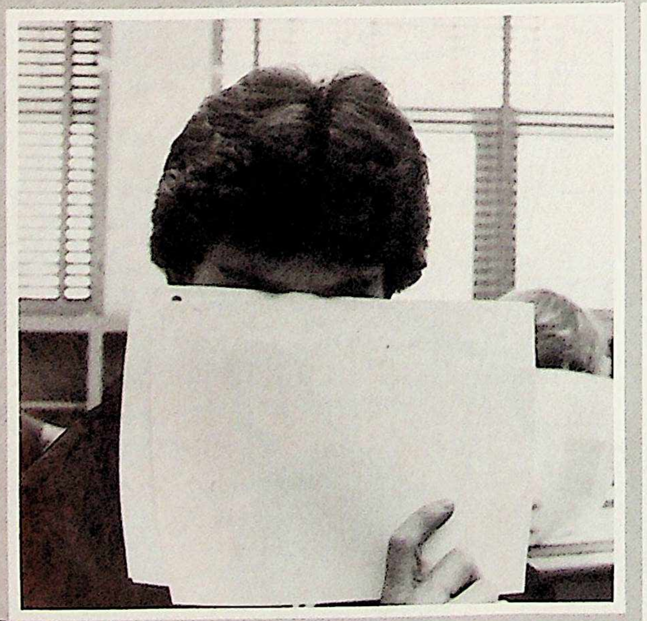


A spine tingling tale.

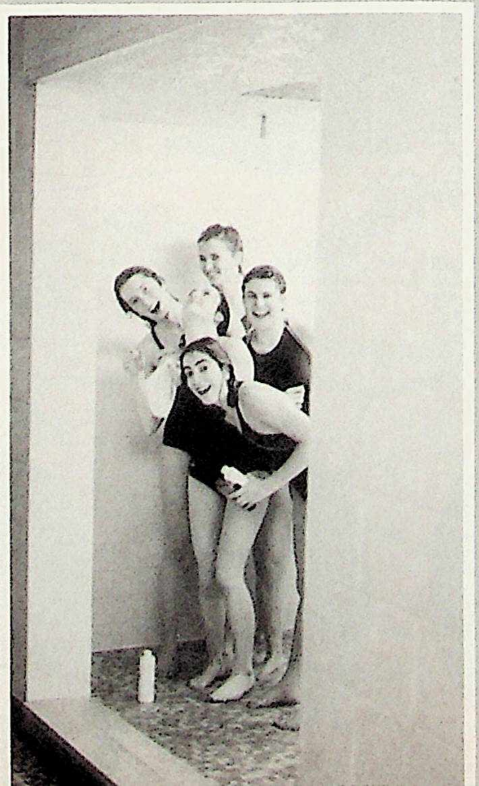
Is this how Cheryl Tiegs does it?



He hasn't paid yet this week!



Mind's a blank.



Are you just passing through?

Can't you just see the influence of your teachings on me? ARCHETYPES running rampant all over this page!! Seriously, I've really enjoyed English with you and I've learned alot, too. The guy-watching was primo, too! Is it true what I heard about you and ... Fabbian?! ooook!

King Arthur lives! (Did you hear?)

IN MEMORY OF
BONNIE BLAYWAYS

FEBRUARY 2, 1968 to APRIL 6, 1985

Bonnie's warmth brought sunshine to all of us who knew her.

Never would Bonnie intentionally hurt anyone; she was too caring. She had the ability to always make someone feel better. Always giving without expecting anything in return, always there for someone who was down: never too busy for anyone.

Bonnie was fun to be with and always full of love and laughter.

Why God chose to take such a beautiful person away from us, no one knows. There will never be a person the same, who would give to anyone and be the true friend Bonnie was.

Bonnie had a purpose in life. It was most important to make her parents proud. She had much love and respect for them. Bonnie had received her letter of acceptance to pre-Med, including a scholarship. This was one of her most important goals to achieve. We're glad she accomplished her two main aims.

Her family and friends have many happy memories to cherish.

We hope Bonnie knows how much people really did care. She will live on in our hearts forever.

AN END, A BEGINNING

In the attic lies a dusty piece of yesterday's best times
Forgotten for so many years.
So many different lives
It symbolizes and it summarizes in pictures and in rhymes
The games we played, the rules we made
Together

CHORUS

Apart we now reside in cities, towns and country sides
Making homes from shelter, food, and clothing in new styles
Adding to the pendulum, swinging left to right
But, the same we stay through the changes we make Forever

Old friends, it seems, have slipped away
To distance we have lost
We've grown way-up since yesterday way-up with a far-out cost

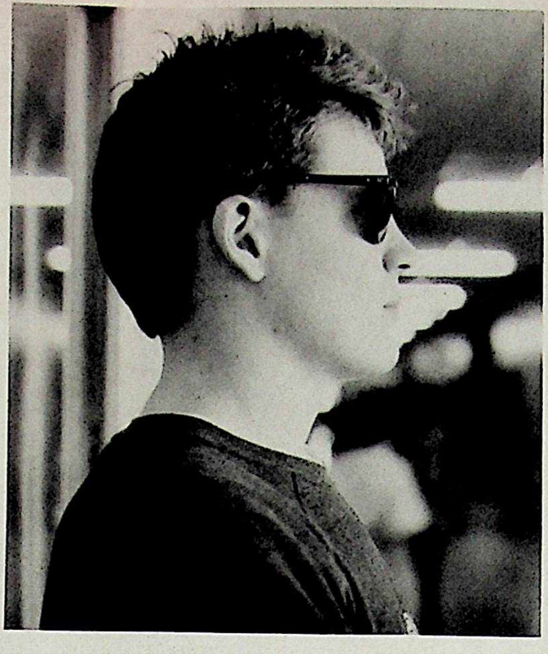
Our generation is now mature
we set out on our way
We take for granted this unity
So, let's not throw it away

CHORUS: Where does it lead
And when do I begin?
What do I do now
How do I fit in
If we must part
To walk our winding roads
Let once in a while get together
To lighten up the load.

MUSIC-JEFF
LYRICS-DAVE



What happened to all of the time we had,
It disappeared so fast,
And though we always knew, there'd be an end,
It's sad it could not last.

Still we're consoled by plans we've made for
when we leave here,
It's time to see if dreams we have survive
the future,

An end, but a beginning,
Though there is loss we are still winning,
And how can we forget the past,
this is the kind of thing that lasts, forever.

So many friends we've made along the way,
We've learned so much so fast,
We have to hope we'll meet somewhere, someday,
So we don't lose our past.

But even if some tears are shed as we part,
We have to smile 'cause soon we get to make a new start.

An end, but a beginning,
Though there is loss we are still winning.
And how can we forget the past,
This is the kind of thing that lasts, forever.

Spring '84

It's a good thing Rugby players don't cry, as the '84 Sr. A team lost by a mere 2 points in the Premiere Conference finals to Paul Kane. The Jr's didn't do as well though, losing all but 2 games in the season.

The only people tougher than rugby players are waterpolo players, who have been known to rip off heads for innocent remarks about unruly underarm hair. How'd the '84 team do? Perhaps congrats are in order for placing a decent 6th in the city. However, it's rumored there were only 6 teams in the league . . .

The girls soccer team did better though, taking the city championship.

September · October · November

The Terry Fox run is held with proceeds going to the Canadian Cancer Society.

The Sr. Football team finish a brilliant season, but lose in final minutes of final game to Salisbury by 2 points. Jr. Boys make it all the way to become the city champs.

Intramural football ends with the Marauders in first place, while co-ed soccer finished with the Masters victorious. They beat teams with such awe-inspiring names as the Gumbies, Potato heads, Vikings, and Maulers.

X-country T-Birds win 1st place in Turkey Trot, with individual bests: 1st Jamie Flower - Jr. 4km, 2nd Shelley Adams - Jr. 3km, 2nd Katrina Leeming - Int. 4km, 3rd Sean Osborne - Jr. 4km.

Jr. Boys V-Ball win city Championship, while Sr.'s won Red Deer Invitational V-Ball Tournament.

In intramural action, TBA Girl's team won over The Ball Buster's. First ever triples winners - Derek Mittelstadt, Suzanne Shouten, and Jim Clelland. Winners of boys intramurals: Syntax - Gr. 10, Henry Song's Tiger's - Gr. 11, and ~~Guido~~'s Luigi's Team Italy for Gr. 12.

January · February · March · · plus ·

Sr. Girls B-ball go to Fort McMurray (the town made famous by the song "What's your hurry, Fort McMurray, you're a booming little town") for Tar Sands Invitational Tournament.

City Championships for x-Country skiing are held, haven't a clue what happened, though.

City Swim meet results in — Shep places 3rd overall.

Tennis club is founded, nothing whatsoever to do with the fact that Helen Kelesi, world tennis champ for under 18's, attends Shep.

Waterpolo gets off to a good start, with a first game win.

Dedication of the soccer team shows as they pack themselves off to Hawaii over Spring Break.

Marine Navigators sail in Gulf Islands over April 29 - May 3

The brains of the operation ...

Well, what can I say, the year is now over and as sad as it may seem we must say good-bye. But looking back I hope you all enjoyed the events of the past year as much as I have enjoyed working with you.

I would like to thank, among many people, Mr. Nixon for his great support, Mr. Downham (Mike) for all of his time, and especially Mr. MacDormand and the best Student's Council ever, who worked extremely hard all year round on all of the activities (as well as establishing room 211 as their official hangout). And ... of course, most of all I would like to thank you, the people of Ross Sheppard who displayed great participation throughout the whole year and gave new meaning to the words "School Spirit."

Thanks Ross Sheppard, it's been a slice.

Glenn Bang

If your head is not a festering lump, you may have noticed something unusual about this yearbook. Why? Because "something completely different" describes the variety of people at Shep. This may be the only school publication with a co-ed shower picture.

Merci Beaucoup to "Bugsy" Lindenberg (for the loan of the pickled slugs and for never physically cropping me when I mentally lapsed), and to Art Jones (for suffering many disturbed nights drawing layouts in his sleep).

And a cigar to Terry Hain -- no she isn't pregnant, who was a very helpful assistant, and who was always willing to give me a friendly whack whenever I fell asleep. And thanks to the lampshade for the rather lovely plastic hat. Thank-you, thank-you, to all you others who've helped before, who've travelled in and out our door ...

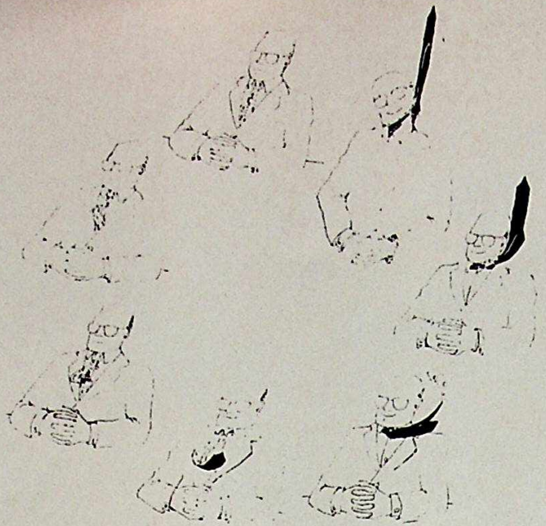
THE TIMES ...

THE BUSINESS CYCLE?

Falling dollar, rising unemployment: economic tough times plague most of the world

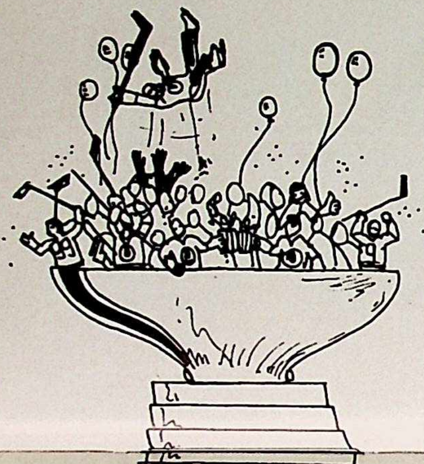
Canada and the other developed nations send millions of dollars in food aid to Ethiopia - where the 10th year of drought took its toll. For many starving Ethiopians, the aid came too late...



CHEMICAL WARFARE?

(April '84) U.S. vice prez George Bush presents a new U.S. proposal for a world-wide chemical weapons ban. One month earlier, U.S scientists challenged charges laid by the U.S. that the USSR had been using chemical weapons in S.E. Asia. Said Dr. Matthew Meselson "[I am] certain now that the yellow rain samples handled are in fact BEE DROPPINGS"

- CIA revealed to have directed mining of Nicaraguan Ports.



OUR CUP OVERFLOWETH...

(May '84) Jubilant Edmontonians raunchily celebrate after the Oilers win their first STANLEY Cup. The score was 5-2 over the New York Islanders in 5th playoff game.

- Liverpool wins European soccer title, beating Roma of Italy
- Soviets & allies withdraw from L.A. Olympics, surprising absolutely no-one.

MARCH '84 - March '85

This past year was marked by events of moral concern. There was the usual clashing over such issues as abortion, capital punishment, & vivisection. New issues arose with the first birth from a frozen embryo in Australia, and the transplanting in humans of non-human hearts. But the most debated and demonstrated against - the nuclear arms race. The following appeared in the Edmonton Journal, author Joe Diggle:

I returned recently from travels in South-East Asia where I met some amazing children in the jungles of Borneo and many other places.

These people have all the necessary potential to live lives just as happy, contented and rewarding as anyone's here. The only aid they need to do this is that we don't drop any of our bombs. These people do not care which superpower has military superiority or which type of government serves its people best. With this attitude they represent the majority of people on earth.

If you believe that people are created equal, please tell me how I can explain to these friends that their lives and the whole future of their people should be threatened so that we might possibly uphold our national security and the democratic process? Are you ready to die to keep the Rajang river from flooding?...

For me in this country there can be only one issue upon which I choose the candidate I vote for. Because if the inflation rate goes up to 25% tomorrow and I have to work for $3 an hour to keep from starving for the rest of my life, I'll survive. If government services are cut off entirely and taxes go up, I'll survive. If the new Olympic ski hill is built on my money on a mountain with no snow, I'll manage somehow. And if the Russians come here tomorrow and start lining men, women, and children up against the wall and shooting us, someone here will survive to fight for their rights and love their children.

But if just once the buttons for the missiles whose carriers are being tested over our province are pushed in the wrong order, in error or not, certainly I, my friends in Asia, and you don't stand a snowball in hell's chance.

You're learning to make the most of you.

As the school year ends and you reflect upon the past year, you realize that some of the most valuable lessons don't come from textbooks. They come from life. From the good times and not-so-good times. When you learn about people. About yourself. Or just about handling things. And that's important. Because you never stop solving problems. You just get better at it.

Congratulations on your graduation and your success so far.

A CONVERSATION

THE CHARACTERS

A BOY (VERY YOUNG, OPTIMISTIC, AND NAIVE.)

DIOGENES (AN OLD GREEK PHILOSOPHER WHO LIVES IN A BARREL.)

B: SO, HOW DO I GROW UP?

D: I'M AFRAID I DON'T KNOW.

B: BUT YOU'RE A GROWNUP, SO YOU MUST BE GROWN UP.

D: NOT AT ALL. WHEN I WAS EIGHTEEN I FELT LIKE I'D DIE OF OLD AGE. IF I FELT SO OLD, I THOUGHT, WHAT DOES MY GRANDFATHER FEEL LIKE?

B: WELL, THERES MORE TO LOOK FOREWARD TO WHEN YOU'RE YOUNG. WE'RE THE NEW GENERATION.

D: THERE'S JUST MORE OF THE SAME GARBAGE WHEN YOU GET OLDER. YOU'RE THE SAME GENERATION, NO DIFFERENT FROM ANY OTHER BEFORE YOU. SOCIETIES CHANGE VERY LITTLE, AND THE PEOPLE IN THEM NOT AT ALL. "NEWNESS" IS AN ILLUSION THAT IS AS PREVALENT AS SAY, "HAPPINESS".

B: HAPPINESS? YOU MEAN LIKE A NICE EXECUTIVE'S JOB AND A HOME IN THE SUBURBS?

D: EXACTLY.

B: BUT YOU LIVE IN A BARREL.

D: THAT'S THE POINT.

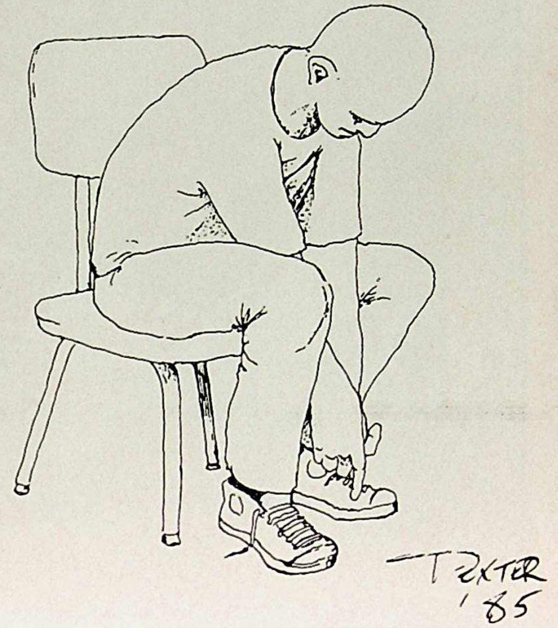
B: WELL THEN, WHAT ADVICE CAN YOU GIVE ME TO GET ALONG IN THE WORLD?

D: LEARN TO LIE TO YOURSELF, IT MAKES THINGS SO MUCH EASIER. TELL YOURSELF THAT EVERYTHING'S JUST GREAT, AND THEN GO WATCH TELEVISION OR SOMETHING.

B: I'M REALLY CONFUSED.

D: AS ARE THE REST OF THE HUMAN RACE. WELCOME TO REALITY.

...BEGINNING OF THE END



When you watch the children running and playing you realize what a waste you have become. You remember when you were their age all the expectations you had. Life was great until you got in trouble for some little thing, then you decided that you hated everything, but as a child this feeling didn't seem to last, half an hour later all your troubles were forgotten and you were a kid again. As you get older you find the hate lasts longer and when it does go you realize that it hasn't gone completely. Gradually you start to distrust people more and more. You put your trust in someone, just one person, and they let you down. You're hurt, but you reach out again someone says they'll help you, you try to trust them, but then they fail you, but you keep on trying you keep on trusting, hoping that one day you will find someone you can trust but you doubt, maybe you doubt it too much so if the person comes along that you can trust you keep testing them. You keep remembering the pain of being let down You don't want to be hurt again so you don't give anyone a chance. You slowly start to live by the rule hurt them before they hurt you. Its not good but its the only way you can survive. Only in the back of your mind, in the deepest part of your stone heart you pray someone will save you before you die, but you're scared to trust so you don't give anyone a chance. Is the joy of trusting and being loved in return worth the risk of trusting and being hurt. I wouldn't know.

If you can control ALL of your friends
Then can you call them your friends?

But if you can keep control of all of your emotions
Can you call yourself human?

But if you can keep control of your subconscious
Can you call yourself a genius?

And if you can keep yourself in a wall
Can you really say that you care

THE MAGIC OF THE UNICORN
INVADES MY EVERY DREAM, AND OFTEN LEAVES ME
SLEEPLESS NIGHTS
TO THINK OF WHAT I'VE SEEN.

HE HAS A MAGICAL IVORY HORN
WHICH KEEPS AWAY THE DARK, AND WITH HIM WILL COME THE GOODNESS
TO FINALLY TAKE ITS PART.

BUT MANY YEARS HAVE COME
AND GONE
AND STILL NOT APPEARED HAS HE,
TO TAKE ME WITH HIM FAR AWAY
FOREVER TO BE FREE.

Evening tide
on the horizon
red upon red yellow upon yellow
dark upon dark.
The night gods awaken
to the sounds of night

A lynx sits in a lonely tree shaking his tufted head.
a deer stands alert
by a quiet pool
The night gods paint
rainbow dreams
on an onyx sky.

In a village, a drum beats.
the people dance in ecstasy.
a dark man sits in a glen his smile like an icy gust of wind
leering at the peoples' illusions
The night gods slink away.

The sun is rising
shooting arrows of gold
into the dark.
arrows of orange and red fill the sky
The night gods sleep again

Tamara Brucks

You came into my life
Like a leaf in autumn
Quietly and unnoticed
Still, I knew you were there.

The occasional "Hi" in the hallways
Day by day,
Became pleasant chats.
Your smile and charm were priceless.

A day that no one cared,
You came to me with cheer.
You helped me see the light,
And I was no longer scared.

It was then I realized
Why you were always there.
I had found a true friend,
Someone that cared.

Helen Ngan

Some days go by too fast
For my dreams to come true.
Gone as their memories become my past,
But never forgotten are my days with you

If only time could learn to stop,
Then maybe I need not look behind
At the years we did not know each other
And the dream I could not find.

That time we met, was it chance or
It turned my life around. fate?
It was the day of my life thus far
'Cause I knew my dream was found.

Jeff Chow.

'I know that we don't say much'
When we see each other day in, day out
But I need to know what you're thinking
Its your voice I can't do without
And to know I've hurt you
Would be too much to bear
So please do understand me
You know I really care.

Got the letter that you wrote me
You told me things I never knew
Why is it when we're far away
These things are easier to do?
You know its you I count on
I need to know you're always there
And please do understand me
You know I really care.

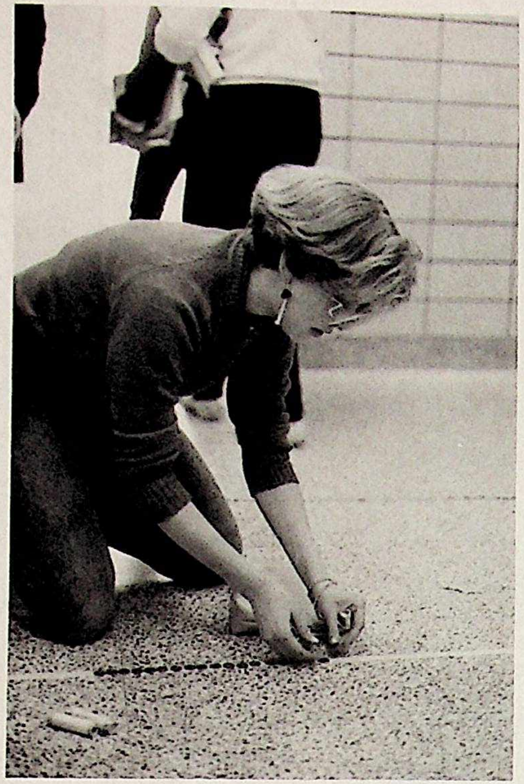
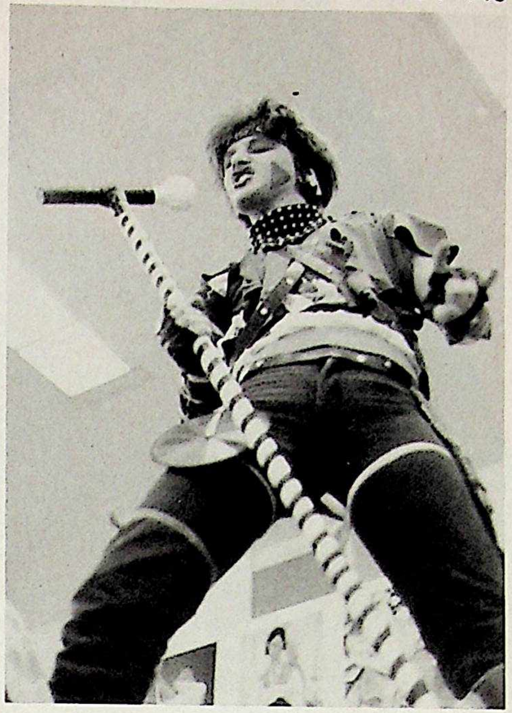
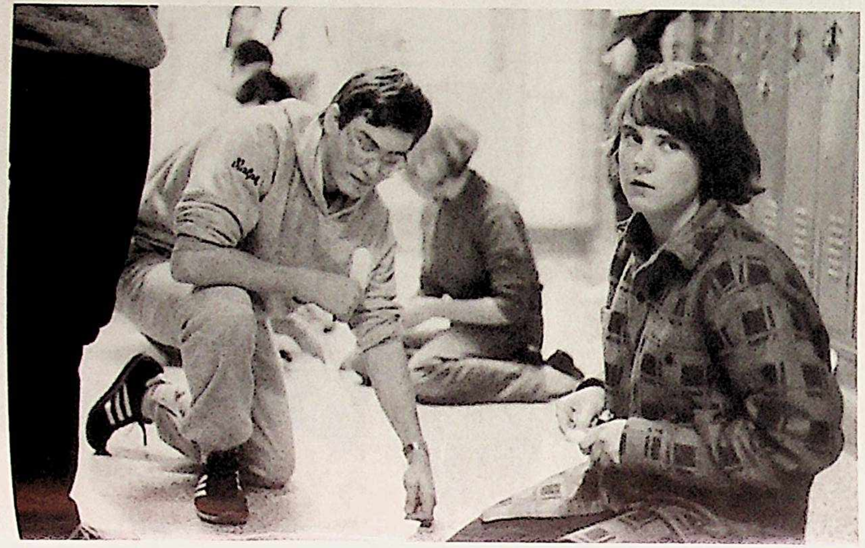
PENNIES FROM HEAVEN

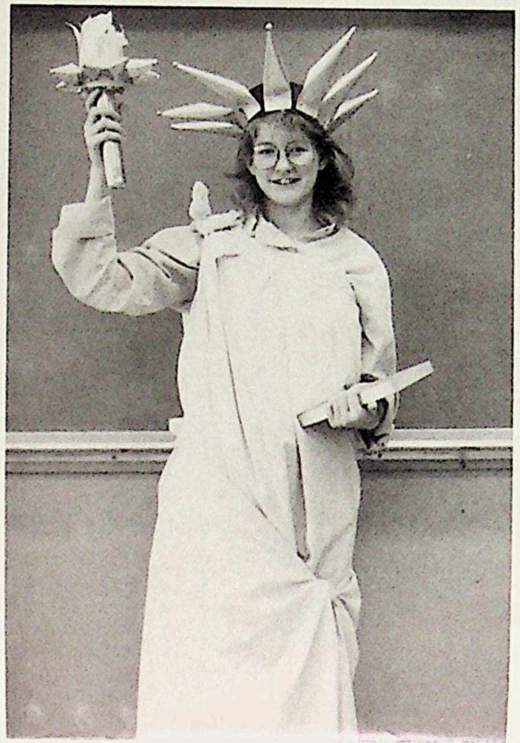
Yet the urge was still with them, and this turned up at Shep ... Pennies from Heaven.

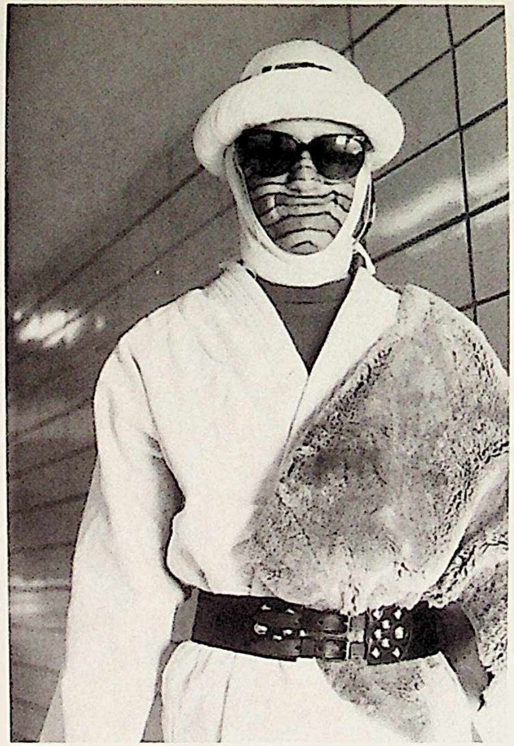
Well not quite, but the Ross Sheppard CHS angels gave of them October 26th. The relay is held annually in aid of Wilber, who has been Shep's foster child for the past 5 years. Contrary to popular opinion, there is no Wilber Puhi Corporation, nor is he the only kid on the block with 5 T.V.'s. Wilber is 14 years old and lives in the Phillipines.

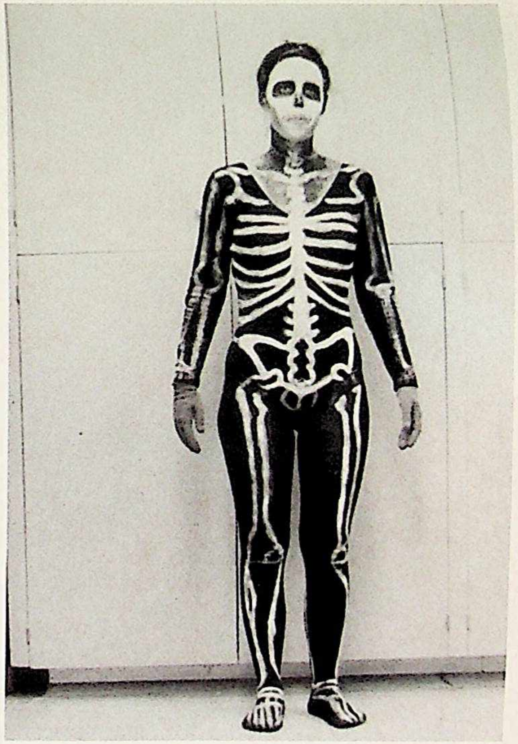












In the words of SJC,

TOO WEIRD

Do these pictures scare the willies out of you?

As Halloween was too frigid this year, many Sheppites could not go trick or treating.
